Selectmen's Meeting

JULY 22, 1986 - by VIRGINIA ARRAL

DENIZ PROPERTY SETTLEMENT THIS WEEK

The tentative date of July 30 at 11:30 a.m. has been agreed upon by the Board of Selectmen, Town Counsel Donald J. Fleming and Attorney Robert G. Moore, counsel for Mrs. Aurisia (Deniz) Gomes of 67 Church Street, to sign an agreement whereby Mrs. Gomes will be allowed to purchase for $22,500 a one-acre lot, house and garage at 67 Church Street on the 15-acre Deniz homestead.

The meeting with Selectmen last week was called by the two counsels to clarify the status of the case which "has been dragging too long", said Attorney Fleming.

A letter was received from Attorney Moore on the subject of the Deniz property in which he objected to a July 16th story in the New Bedford Standard-Times saying the article was misleading, indicating the delays in settling the sale agreement were one-sided. Moore contended, "Mrs. Gomes has had difficulty in arranging financing and the Town had difficulty in supplying us with a plan of the proposed division for submittal to prospective lenders. There was also delay due to having to seek town meeting approval." Moore contended the hold-up was not the preparation of the family trust, as he claimed the trust has been prepared for a while now. He noted the agreement was reached concerning the language of the closing documents and those documents were prepared for the scheduled closing on July 17. The title examiner accepted the revised language. However, the town did not show up at the closing date. "I was informed that the town counsel wanted to go back to the Board of Selectmen for clarification," said Moore.

Moore wrote, "I ask you (Selectmen) to honor your commitment and direct that the town meeting vote be carried out by closing this transfer in the immediate future."

Both Fleming and Moore cited an unfortunate communication problem that resulted in Moore, his client Mrs. Gomes, and an interpreter arriving on July 17 ready to close the sale. Fleming said he felt sure Moore knew the agreement was unacceptable. Fleming said, "The problem now is, are we giving a gift to this woman?" The property at 67 Church Street has appreciated in value - estimated now at $200,000.

Moore countered saying, "With the estate family planning trust, Mrs. Gomes is not getting anything different than what was agreed upon at the beginning of the discussions in March. The problem right along has been the terminology of a five-year trust."

Selectman James F. Huntoon explained to Moore that Fleming is concerned with the increased valuation of the property, and also that there is certain confidential client information that Moore cannot divulge.

Fleming also noted Mrs. Gomes has been living there (67 Church Street) and not paying a cent of taxes since the mid 1970s, when her husband (Deniz) died. At the present time approximately $50,000 is owed in taxes. "I have real reservations about giving this property away," said Fleming. The new agreement first proposed in March of this year allows an individual to finance the mortgage instead of a bank and gives Mrs. Gomes a clear title to the property because of the difficulty in obtaining a bank mortgage with the problem of a title and the number of heirs.

Moore noted the July 30th date will be subject to his obtaining an interpreter from Providence who has to be present during the signing of the sale agreement. "If, in fact, the trust is not acceptable, we will just deed the property to her. It is not in anyone's favor to drag this out any longer," said Moore.

Selectmen agreed they have bent over backwards to allow Mrs. Gomes to buy back the house and live in it for the rest of her life, but that they have grown tired of the lengthy negotiations and agreed to a simpler deed signing.

American Legion

The monthly meeting of the Florence Eastman Post 280, American Legion was held at Post Headquarters on Wednesday, July 23rd.

The Commander commented on the very successful clambake and thanked all of the members who helped. A special "Thank You" was given to our Auxiliary who did so much to assist us during the clambake weekend.

We want to send along our appreciation to everyone who assisted us on our clambake.

The date for our Installation will be Saturday, October 4th, at 8:00 p.m. at Post Headquarters. After the installation, there will be dancing and refreshments.

The Post received a National Award for having 100 percent plus membership for 1986 over 1985. National Commander Dale L. Renaud gave special recognition to Posts who achieve 100% plus membership.

Your new dues are due. We would like to have them in as soon as possible, so we can keep our 100 percent up again this year. It only takes a few minutes to send your dues in. Thank you.

MUSEUM SALUTES MATTAPOISETT'S INDUSTRY PAST AND PRESENT

From a peanut roaster factory to a cabinet works; from a chair factory to a baseball cap manufacturer; from no business or industry to almost 100 businesses - the August exhibit at the Museum on Church Street salutes Mattapoisett's Industry Past and Present.

Rescue Team Drive

TO CONCERNED RESIDENTS OF MATTAPOISETT:

This letter is to ask for your continued support with donations for the operation of the Mattapoisett Rescue Team, which must purchase equipment as needed from time to time. Last year with your generous donations we were able to purchase Survival Suits and other related equipment used in Ice and Water Rescue and Land Search and Rescue.

As you may know, the Rescue Squad is a totally voluntary organization which assists and augments the town's major emergency services, i.e., the Fire Department, the Police Department and the EMS - Ambulance Service. We also participate in Mutual Aid agreements made with our neighboring towns when the need arises.

As a volunteer organization, the Rescue Squad receives NO TOWN FUNDING, nor any

Some additional substitutions for hazardous household products are: Instead of using an oven cleaner, use a mixture of salt, baking soda and water (plus elbow grease!). For a silver cleaner, soak the silver in a quart of warm water containing a teaspoon of baking soda, a teaspoon of salt and a piece of aluminum foil. For a window cleaner, use two tablespoons of vinegar in a quart of water.

We need YOUR help to reach our goal. A dollar per person from your household will help. Please send your check made out to: Treasurer, Household Hazardous Waste Committee, and mail in care of the Board of Health, Town Hall, Mattapoisett, MA.02739.

Here's how Chiropractic treats Overweight

Few people realize that there is a relationship between disturbed metabolism and overweight. The doctor of chiropractic applies his procedure to achieve balanced functioning of the organs of the body.

Doctors of chiropractic also know that balanced nutrition is one of the most important elements necessary to losing weight in a safe and stable manner. Likewise, it is important to the functional health and recuperative ability of the body.

That is why the doctor of chiropractic utilizes dietary management as part of his/her regular health care procedure. If weight loss is desirable, it will be recommended, based on a program which avoids shock to your system.

Playground Improvement Committee

Take a walk to the Center School playground and look at the deplorable conditions. Notice how many children are playing on the equipment. A ladder is broken, tar is under the swings (how safe is that?), ponds of water form after a rain, especially under the see-saw. It is unattractive.

We feel we can do better! We have examples of what communities can do (Dartmouth and Marion) when they place the well being of their children a priority. Let's keep Mattapoisett special -- help improve the playground.

Our next meeting will occur on Thursday, August 7th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Town Hall. All concerned adults are welcome and invited to attend.

Two priorities will be addressed at this meeting: fund-raising and design work. We are attempting to improve the playground and intend to build new pieces and integrate with what we presently have.

If you wish to help but cannot attend the meeting call 758-6219.

Heartfelt appreciation to the captain of the "SKAGGERAK" (probably misspelled) who, along with his wife and son, interrupted a July 4th fishing expedition to tow my disabled boat from Nye's Ledge to Mattapoisett Harbor.

Most gratifying was the typical spirit of helpfulness offered without a moment's hesitation.

A former seaman myself, this act was further evidence of the bond of cooperation

The Hopwood Scholarship Program, now in its 10th year, gives high school students an opportunity to learn about college work. During the one week college short course they will choose from a curriculum of 20 courses related to a number of academic fields.

To be eligible for the program, students must be high school seniors in the 1986-87 term and must have ranked academically in the upper 20 percent of their junior classes. Those selected receive free tuition for the course and upon successful completion earn one semester hour of college credit.

Up to 20 percent of those attending the summer session will receive Hopwood Scholarships. The scholarships, named for Lynchburg College's founder and first president, Josephus Hopwood, are made possible by the T. Brady Saunders Scholarship Fund, set up by the late T. Brady Saunders, a Virginia industrialist and long-time member of Lynchburg College's Board of Trustees.

NAMED TO DEAN'S LIST

Buzzards Bay Project

BUZZARDS BAY DAY OCTOBER 11

TOWN COORDINATORS ANNOUNCED, VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Last August, Tom Fantozzi, health officer in Bourne, found Barlows Landing Beach to be so polluted that he closed it to shellfishing and swimming. Today, he suspects that this closure, like the closures to shellfishing which can be found in every community along Buzzards Bay, may indicate things to come. Says Fantozzi, "I wish more people could get out on the shoreline as I do when I do my surveys, and learn about the critical nature of the area, and become aware of the problems in their own neighborhood so that they can get involved. Many people who go to the beach never walk farther up shore and see the effects of dense development on a resource area."

On October 11 Fantozzi's wish will come true as hundreds of people participate in Buzzards Bay Day -- an event which will feature shoreline tours in each community. Participants will be asked to pick up trash along the beaches as they learn about the ecology and pollution problems of the area. At the end of the tour they will be asked to complete a questionnaire about the future of the Bay.

Part of the EPA-funded Buzzards Bay Project is scheduled during Coastweek, an event conceived by the Project's Citizens' Advisory Committee. The Buzzards Bay Project is now analyzing pollution sources in the Bay and setting water quality goals. Over the next few years the project will develop a management plan for the Bay. Public opinion gathered on Buzzards Bay Day will help determine water quality goals for the project.

Recently appointed to the Buzzards Bay committee are town coordinators for these shoreline communities -- Falmouth, Bourne, Wareham, Marion, Mattapoisett, Fairhaven, New Bedford, Dartmouth and Westport.

The coordinators are currently choosing shoreline sections, enlisting co-sponsors and are seeking volunteers to lead the tours. Individuals, organizations and businesses interested in becoming involved as tour leaders or co-sponsors may contact their town coordinator or may call the Lloyd Center for

The Rotch-Jones-Duff House & Garden Museum presents Gerry Dupont, Marsom B. Pratt, II and Jim Shoesmith, a trio of marine craftsmen, in a special exhibit of their work, opening August 6th, with a wine and cheese reception from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m.; $3.00 for members; $5.00 for non-members. The exhibit will run through August 13th, weekdays from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.; weekends, 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Admission is $2.00.

All three artists have exhibited widely. Their works are included in both private collections and in the permanent collections of maritime museums.

Mr. Dupont's work has been received enthusiastically by collectors in the United States and in Europe. He was presented an Award for Excellence in the 1983 Mystic International.

Marsom B. Pratt III, an artist-carpenter, makes wooden half-hulls that follow the lines of vessels from clipper ships to 210's. Utilizing a variety of woods, he

NEW EVENING CULINARY ARTS PROGRAM AT BCC

A new evening program beginning this fall at Bristol Community College offers a certificate in Culinary Arts.

"In just 10-12 hours a week for four semesters, students can experience the same training as in the successful culinary arts day certificate program," said John Caressimo, director of the Culinary Arts Program. "The evening program allows students to remain working while training for a new career or advancing their skills in their present one." This year, every graduating student from the day program found a job in the field.

The evening curriculum will depend heavily on hands-on experience in the College kitchen, emphasizing cafeteria style, a la carte, restaurant and volume cooking, said Caressimo. "We will concentrate on basic cuisine with a smattering of various styles of ethnic cooking," he added. Students will get practice and instruction in good table service, bartending and wine service as well as cooking stocks, soups, sauces, meats, poultry and vegetables. They will also learn the basics of baking breads, rolls, cakes, pies and tarts.

This year Mr. Caressimo, who graduated first in his class of 450 from the Culinary Arts Institute of America, along with his students, will prepare and serve many public dinners and special events. Last year's public dinners ranging from an exclusive French dinner to an Octoberfest were often sold out months in advance. Caressimo has compiled a mailing list of several hundred names who want to be invited to this fall's dinners to be prepared by both day and evening students.

There are still openings available in the evening program. Interested parties should call the College for details. For more information on the program or registration, contact the Division of Continuing Education office at 678-2811, ext. 154.

NEW FORMAT FOR EVENING NURSING PROGRAM

The evening nursing program of Bristol Community College has a newly revised format that will be discussed at two open meetings, Wednesday, July 30, and Wednesday, August 27.

"The revised program, due to being in fall 1987, will be less expensive to students than the current program and can be completed in a shorter time. Instead of the four-year requirement to complete the core nursing courses, only two years will be required to complete them under the new format," said Charles Blank, assistant academic dean.

The program, according to Mr. Blank, has

The Americana Trail

A MONTH OF FESTIVALS
IN SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND

August is festival month for the southern coast of New England - a time when there are about as many different kinds of festivals going on as New England has weather.

In just the short distance from southeastern Connecticut to Cape Cod Bay, you can eat your way through a Portuguese festival and watch traditional dances at an American Indian Pow-Wow; see a jousting match between knights of old and a jumping derby of international calibre; stuff down a Rhode Island "stuffie" or crack open a lobster in the shadow of the Mayflower II.

It's all on the Americana Trail, a route along the southern coast of New England that links together the most popular tourist destinations and over 35 major attractions.

The festival month , rightly, with the Feast of the Blessed Sacrament in New Bedford July 31 through August 3.

To the locals who have seen this festival grow over the last 72 years, it is called simply the "Madeiran Feast".

The festival's origins began with a group of immigrants in 1914 sailing from the Madeira Islands to America. During a violent storm at sea, the band vowed to hold a feast in respect for the Blessed Sacrament if they arrived safely.

Today, the largest Portuguese festival in the United States is a blend of the old and the new. While dancers in native costume perform on stage, a rock band entertains the younger crowd at the other end of the fairgrounds.

Be sure to come hungry, for the Feast provides an opportunity to sample many Portuguese favorites you can't find outside the area. In the enclosed pavilion, you can sit down to traditional plates of cabra (young goat cooked with tomatoes and herbs); coelho (tender young rabbit); bacalhau (codfish); and cacoila (marinated pork butts) to be suitably washed down with some good vinho.

For more casual dining, barbecue your own carne de espete over the 30-foot long charcoal pit or pick up some linguica sandwiches, fava beans and beer.

In addition to the food, there is continuous entertainment, rides and a midway for the kids. Feast hours run from 6 p.m. to midnight on Thursday and Friday, 3 p.m. to midnight on Saturday and noon to midnight on Sunday. For more information call 992-6911.

AN INDIAN POW-WOW

While the immigrant roots of this nation have received considerable attention this summer with the re-dedication of the Statue of Liberty, there is at least one reminder, nearby, of the Americans who were not immigrants.

The American Indian Federation Pow-Wow August 2-3 in Wickford, Rhode Island provides an opportunity for Indians of several different tribes in the northeast to "get together" as the term "pow-wow" means. While it is a social event for Indians, it provides a unique educational experience for the public at large.

From 50 to 75 Indian participants are expected to attend representing the Wampanoag and Narragansett tribes of Rhode Island, the Mashpee and Nipmuc of Massachusetts, the Mohawk of New York and the Passamaquoddy of Maine. Incidentally, there are more Indians than you might guess in New England - some 5,000 in Massachusetts alone. However, you only need to be 1/16 Indian or have one great-great parent who was a full blooded native American to call yourself an Indian.

The highlight of the pow-wow is the performing of the ceremonial dances called the "I saw" dances because they were historically used to describe events and swap stories between tribes who did not speak the same language. They are considerably different than the "war dances" and those of religious significance.

In addition to the dancers, Indian traders sell Indian crafts at booths set up at the Middle School in Wickford. The Pow-Wow runs from 1 to 5 p.m. each day.

MYSTIC OUTDOOR ART FESTIVAL

Artists have their own get-together in Mystic, Connecticut, on August 9-10 for what may be the largest art exhibition in the United States and most assuredly, the largest in New England.

Works of more than 400 artists, carefully selected from 1,000 entrants, line at least two miles of main and side streets in this historic town. Sculpture and some jewelry is included along with paintings, watercolors, drawings and photography.

The free outdoor festival attracts close to 100,000 people and is made more festive by many of the local service organizations who put on such things as an inexpensive lobster dinner for the visiting public.

The festival runs from 8 to 5 each day. Free parking is available at all of the church parking lots in the town.

feast for visitors to Mystic Outdoor Art Festival offers a feast of sound in Newport, Rhode Island, at the Newport Folk Festival. The Folk Festival returned to this resort community last year after a 16-year hiatus. This year's festival, scheduled for August 9-10, expects to draw 7,500 people a day to the Fort Adams State Park outdoor stage.

Folk singing greats such as Tom Rush, John Hartford, and Richie Havens will headline this year's event. The line-up also includes local favorites: Christine Levine of New York, Patti Larkin of Cape Cod and David Bromberg.

Concerts run from noon to 6 p.m. daily against a harbor backdrop at the state park. For schedule details call (401) 295-5566.

The August festivals are by no means all that is happening along the Americana Trail either during August or through the rest of the summer and fall.

Plimoth Plantation

WEDDING IN PILGRIM VILLAGE AUGUST 2

Visitors to Plimoth Plantation can watch the ceremony when Jane Cooke and Experience Mitchell exchange wedding vows outside the Winslow House in the 1627 Pilgrim Village. The reenactment will take place on Saturday, August 2nd, at 1:00 p.m.

Master Edward Winslow, an Assistant Governor of the colony, will serve as magistrate for the civil ceremony. Official witnesses will be Goodman Mannasses Kempton and his wife, Juliana.

Following the ten-minute ceremony, the bride's parents, Francis and Hester, will serve the bride-ale (wedding dinner) to the magistrate, witnesses and the newly-wed couple in the Winslow home. As the Separatist Cooke family spent many years in exile in Leyden, the wedding feast will reflect the Dutch influence. Gifts will be presented, including a pot of butter, traditionally believed to bring prosperity to the bride

TOWN OF MATTAPOISETT, MASSACHUSETTS
REQUEST FOR BID

July 15, 1986

The Selectmen of the Town of Mattapoisett are seeking proposals for Designer Services as set forth below. The fee for the services desired has been set at $5,000. Proposals will be evaluated by the Mattapoisett Police Station Evaluation and Needs Committee, and all proposals shall be sent to Mr. Peter B. Hodges, Chairman, addressed to Town Hall, Mattapoisett, MA.02739. Finalists may be required to appear before the Committee for a personal interview. Selection of the finalists will be determined by the experience of the applicant on similar projects, the financial stability of his firm, the identity and qualifications of consultants who will work with the applicant on the project, and any other criteria deemed relevant. In order to be eligible the applicant must be an individual architect or engineer registered in Massachusetts or a member of a firm the majority of whose partners or officers are architects or engineers registered in Massachusetts. Proposals will be received until 12:00 M August 15, 1986 in the Selectmen's Office, Town Hall, Mattapoisett, MA. 02739. The Town of Mattapoisett reserves the right to reject any and all proposals and to award contract to other than the low bidder if deemed to be in the best interests of the town.

Designer Services Required

The Police Station Evaluation and Needs Committee has determined that the present police facilities located in the rear of the Town Hall are inadequate. Several possible solutions to the problem have been identified of which two appear to be the most promising at the moment. A totally new facility could be constructed on land now owned by the Town, or the Town Offices could be moved to a portion of the Center School and the present Town Hall renovated as the police facilities. In order to make a proper recommendation to the Selectmen, the Committee needs the services of a designer to evaluate the possible solutions from an architectural point of view, i.e. what are the probable problems to be encountered in each of the options and rough order of magnitude what are the probable costs associated with each proposition. Only rough schematic drawings of floor plans are required.

The instructor will be Kevin Ferry, who is Alcohol and Drug Education Coordinator at SMU. He is also a certified alcohol counselor, educator and trainer.

Clyde Mitchell, SBDC director, stressed the importance of the workshop. "Currently, judges are making no distinctions between careless company parties and careless bars or restaurants, and are holding alcohol vendors responsible for subsequent mishaps of their patrons," he said.

The workshop will be at White's of Westport on Route 6. It will run from 9 to 11 a.m. at a cost of $20. per person. To arrange group rates or for further information call the Small Business Development Center at 673-9783.
